PART I—Section 2.

GENERAL.

No. G. 10573—G. M. 326-16-3, DATED 3RD FEBRUARY 1917.

A competitive examination of approved candidates will be held in the Public Office Buildings, Bangalore, on 19th November 1917 and the following days for the admission of Probationers into the Mysore Civil Service.

2. Candidates must not be over 25 years of age on 19th November 1917 and must have graduated in Arts in an Indian or other University. They must be natives of Mysore by birth or domicile or must have graduated from one of the Mysore Colleges unless they have been selected by His Highness the Maharaja for special reasons.

Note 1.—Candidates who have applied for the B. A. Examination of 1917 will also be admitted conditionally on their passing the examination so as to entitle them to a degree provided that evidence thereof is furnished before the end of June 1917.

Note 2.—A person acquires a domicile in Mysore when he has voluntarily fixed the habitation of himself and his family therein, not for mere special or temporary purposes but with the present intention of making it his permanent home. A continued residence for five years shall be prima facie evidence of having acquired a domicile.

3. Applications for admission to the examination should be forwarded to the Secretary to Government, General Department, Bangalore, so as to reach him on or before the 30th April 1917. Applications should be in the appended Form A, printed copies of which can be had from the office of the Secretary to Government, General Department, or of the Inspector-General of Education, Bangalore.

4. No candidate's name will be registered unless he has attached to his application a treasury receipt showing that he has paid Rs. 50 into a treasury belonging to the Government of Mysore.

5. Every candidate should forward with his application the following certificates and statement:—

(i) A certificate of birth.—This may be a certificate from a Registrar of Births, a baptismal certificate, or a certificate from a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate who shall give it only after satisfying himself that the date of birth given is correct by means of the candidate's horoscope or authenticated extracts from the School Registers or such other evidence as he may consider sufficient.

(ii) A certificate of good moral character.—This certificate must be dated not earlier than 1st January 1917 and must be granted by a person of known respectability, not a relative, who has been intimately acquainted with the candidate for at least the three preceding years.

(iii) A certificate or certificates of progress and conduct from the authorities of the College where the candidate has been educated.

(iv) Evidence showing the occupation of the candidate's father or guardian and the social status of the candidate's family.

(v) Evidence showing that the candidate is a native of Mysore by birth or domicile or that the candidate has graduated from one of the Mysore Colleges.

(vi) A provisional certificate in Form B appended, from a Medical Officer not below the rank of a Surgeon, or from a District Medical Officer, that the candidate is possessed of a good physical constitution and is fitted for the active duties of an executive officer.

(vii) A statement showing when and in what branches and in what class or classes the candidate has passed the B.A. Degree Examination.

6. Such of the registered applicants as may be approved by His Highness the Maharaja will alone be admitted to the examination. The names of approved graduates will be published in the Mysore Gazette not later than 31st May 1917, and those of other registered candidates who pass the B. A. Degree Examination before the 1st July 1917 and who are approved thereafter, not later than the 2nd August 1917.

7. Approved candidates whose names appear in the list published under the last preceding paragraph must appear before a Medical Board at Bangalore on a day in the month of June and of August 1917, respectively, which will be notified by Government and only such of them as may be passed by the Medical Board will be allowed to proceed to the examination.

8. The fee paid by any candidate who may not be approved by His Highness the Maharaja or who, having been approved by His Highness, may not be passed by the Medical Board, will be returned.

9. The examination shall comprise the following compulsory and optional subjects:—

The examinations in the Optional Subjects will be somewhat wider in scope than those for the Pass B.A. Degree of the Madras University and the B.A. Degree of any other Indian University and the papers will also be of a somewhat higher standard. The numbers of questions set in each paper may, at the discretion of the Examiners, be more than the number required to be answered to secure full marks.

10. Every candidate is required to take up two Optional Subjects. Only those candidates who have satisfied the Examiners in the Written Examination shall be called upon to appear for the Viva voce or the Practical Examination. Viva voce and Practical Examinations will be held either at Bangalore or Madras as will be duly notified to the candidates at the time of the Written Examination.

11. The Written Examinations shall be conducted in the order of time and subjects to be notified hereafter.

The days and hours of the Viva voce and Practical Examinations will be announced during the Written Examination.

12. Candidates who obtain not less than two-fifths of the total number of marks in group A, not less than one-third of the total number of marks in groups B and C of the Compulsory Subjects, and not less than one-third of the total number of marks in the Optional Subjects selected shall be arranged in the order of the total marks obtained. The list of candidates so arranged shall be submitted to Government.

13. Not less than four persons will be selected in order of merit from the list of successful candidates and admitted to the grade of Assistant Commissioners as Civil Service Probationers.

14. The candidates thus admitted into the Mysore Civil Service will be under probation and training as specified below:—

(a) During the first two years after appointment they shall pass—

(i) an examination in riding;

(ii) departmental service examinations required according to the rules in force for the time being; and

(iii) such of them as have not taken Kannada as their optional language in a University or other recognized Public Examination, an examination in that language according to a prescribed standard.

A Probationer failing to pass the above tests by the end of the two years of probation may be allowed a further year's grace. Failing to pass in the third year his name will be removed from the list of Probationers.

During this period the Probationers will be trained in office work and other duties as far as may be practicable and will also receive a training in Treasury work, Revenue Survey and Elementary Engineering.

(b) (i) After the Probationers have passed the required examinations they will, at the discretion of Government, be appointed to the several departments of Government in accordance with the exigencies of service and individual aptitude and qualification, provided that Government may for sufficient reason at any time transfer an officer from one department to another.

(ii) Probationers intended for employment in the Accounts Department will, during the third year, be attached to the Comptroller's Office and trained in Civil and Public Works Accounts. In addition to practical training, they will be required to appear for and pass the Departmental Accounts Examinations which may be specified from time to time.

(iii) All other Probationers will, for a period of one year, be trained in the different branches of work in a taluk till they thoroughly understand the details of the work done and the duties performed by every official of the Revenue Department from the Amildar (or other officer of corresponding rank) downwards.

(iv) Probationers intended for employment in the Survey Department will, in addition to training as in (iii) above, be trained in the work of the department and will be required to pass the departmental examination in survey work.

A Probationer who does not give satisfaction during his course of training will be liable to have his confirmation deferred, or to be removed altogether from the service.

15. (a) During the first two years of probation the Probationers will draw pay at Rs. 200 per mensem.

(b) During the third year of training after passing the examinations, the Probationers will draw pay at Rs. 250 per mensem.

(c) On becoming fully qualified by passing all the prescribed examinations and going through the course of practical training with credit, a Probationer will be confirmed as Assistant Commissioner, 5th Class, on Rs. 250 and afterwards rise according to the scale given below:—

To Assistant Commissioner, 4th Class, on Rs. 300. After three years' approved service in the 5th Class.

To Assistant Commissioner, 3rd Class, on Rs. 350. After three years' approved service in the 4th Class.

To Assistant Commissioner, 2nd Class, on Rs. 400. After three years' approved service in the 3rd Class.

To Assistant Commissioner, 1st Class, on Rs. 450. After three years' approved service in the 2nd Class.

Promotions to higher appointments in the State will be according to vacancies and by selection on the ground of merit.
